

Walking Tours with Mural Arts

Explore the world's largest outdoor art gallery and get to know Philadelphia's stunning mural collection on an exciting guided tour. Experience firsthand how art ignites change and become inspired by the incredible public art that makes Philadelphia the Mural Capital of the World on one of our many neighborhood walking tour routes!

Signature Tour Route:

Center City Mural Mile

Get to know Mural Arts Philadelphia's world-renowned collection on foot along the Mural Mile. Explore culturally rich Center City and its amazing public art, getting up close and personal with murals that tell the intimate and inspiring stories of our city, its leaders, and citizens. The Mural Mile highlights art tucked in out-of-the-way corners to soaring additions to the cityscape.

Center City East

Starting at the Independence Visitor Center in the historic district, guests will get to know Mural Arts Philadelphia's collection of dynamic murals from 6th Street up to Midtown Village at 13th Street. Explore the stunning works of art nestled amongst the cobblestones and narrow streets of some of the Nation's most iconic historical sites.

Center City West

Explore Mural Arts Philadelphia's bold and bright works of art on foot West of Broad Street from 18th and Market Streets to the Schuylkill River. This interesting route highlights a variety of old and new murals with varying themes behind them. You will hear stories behind the murals, the artists, and their impact on the City over the years.

Historic Germantown

This tour of the historic Germantown neighborhood displays murals that exemplify long-standing partnership and community engagement efforts that have led to impactful and transformative urban development projects. Guests will discover the charm and history of the area and learn the stories behind artwork that has helped the area to flourish.

Continues on next page...

New Bella Vistas

Discover the many beautiful and inspirational murals in the Bella Vista and Hawthorne neighborhoods. Guests get an inside look at the unique character of the area to see murals that exemplify new beginnings and the pioneering spirit and grit that is at the heart of Philadelphia and its residents – past and present.

Outside In Art Tour

NEW & IMPROVED ROUTE FOR 2024: Mural Arts Philadelphia, in partnership with the Philadelphia Fashion District, is thrilled to launch The Outside In Art Tour, which features a variety of stunning murals around the area, followed by an inside visit showcasing bold permanent artwork. Guests will be wowed by an eclectic mix of murals, mosaics, sculptures, and more.

South Street South

NEW & IMPROVED ROUTE FOR 2024: Enjoy a tour of murals on and around Philadelphia's famous, hip South Street. Tour guests will experience an array of stunning artwork from traditional to newer, edgier murals, as well as some of South Street's iconic street art between 6th and 3rd Streets. This tour route highlights the offbeat and culturally diverse flavor of the neighborhood.

Spring Into the Arts

This tour will explore the ever-changing, industrial yet modern Spring Arts district from Broad to 10th Streets. This route is an explosion of eclectic mural styles; stunning temporary works mixed with mural masterpieces that ensure a surprise around every corner.

For more details or to purchase public tour tickets visit muralarts.com/tours. To book a private walking tour email tours@muralarts.org or call 215-925-3633.